

LA Council of Ski Clubs & Ski Europe presents—

Courmayeur, Italy

March 3-11, 2007

$1305*

Trip includes—

- Roundtrip economy class air from LAX on Lufthansa
- 7 nights lodging at Hotel Cresta Et Duc, based on 2-person occupancy per hotel room
- Welcome Party
- Breakfast & dinner daily at the hotel
- Roundtrip transfers from airport to Courmayeur
- Local English speaking representative
- Local taxes & service charges in Europe
- Travel Protection Plan

* Does Not Include—

- Lift tickets for skiing
- Air taxes, fees & fuel charges—estimated at this time at $290.00

Reservations and Information—

Bonnie West— 4bjwest@verizon.net or 562.699.8880

Payment and Cancellation Schedule—

Deposit	Due By	Cancellation
$200	Now	None
$500	September 30	$100
$500	December 1	$250
Balance	December 30	$350
	January 30, '07	no refund unless a replacement is found

Courmayeur has plenty of skiing on the sunny side of the Alps. Two main areas, Checrouit and Veny, have 62 miles of groomed slopes that will please nearly everyone but hard core skiers. But they can wander into the deep.

Courmayeur, is a colorful village with Old World charm. In addition to exploring the town, skiers who take time off from the slopes for sightseeing can visit Aosta, the major city in this part of Italy. It traces its origins back to Roman times; its ruins are worthy of mention in any guidebook. Throughout the Aosta valley dozens of medieval castles stand watch over the old Roman road.

CST: 2083418-40

$330 *

Milan, Italy

March 11-14, 2007

Milan post-trip includes—

- 3 nights at a Hotel, including daily breakfast
- Half day city tour of Milan with English speaking guide
- Taxes and service charges

