SAFETY– early detection of head trauma
Keeping your head in the game

In sports, impacts are a part of the game. CHECKLIGHT™ alerts athletes, coaches, athletic trainers and parents to the severity of impacts.

CHECKLIGHT™ Benefits Include—

- Consistent, reliable and actionable impact data
- Sensors that are directly coupled to the head to reflect direct accelerations that the head, not a helmet or chin strap, experiences
- Can be worn with and without a helmet in multiple activities
- Easy to use and comfortable to wear
- Logs the total number of impacts recorded

What the Lights Mean During Activity—

- YELLOW blinking indicated a moderate impact
- RED blinking indicates a more severe impact
- GREEN blinking indicates no impact. ◆
